Additional Indictments.

In addition to the indictments given yesterday the Belmont county grand jury found a true bill against John Madden, of Martin's Ferry, for resisting an officer, and Charlie McCord, a Martin's Ferry boy, was indicted for larceny, and Emmitt Pickett and Wm. Long were indicted for assault and battery. Eight persons were indicted for violation of the local option law, two to four indictments against some of them, and a Bohemian at Maynard was indicted for assault and battery.

Charged with Forgery.

Harry Williams was arrested yesterday on a charge of forgery, and obtaining $2 by alteration of a note belonging to Allan Newman. Williams has been in the habit of paying his board bill at Newman's by having the amount taken from his wages by the company for which he was working, by presenting an order to the company from Newman showing the amount, and Newman called later and received the money. A few days ago he handed in a note stating the amount to be extracted from his wages as $4.20, while Newman had written $6.20. Williams pocketed the $2 extra. Newman, on learning that he had been cheated out of $2, had him arrested.

Governor Fleming Goes to Chicago. Governor A. B. Fleming and several members of his staff arrived in Wheeling late yesterday afternoon in the special car of Vice President Lord, of the Baltimore & Ohio, en route to Chicago to take part in the dedication of the World's Fair buildings. This car was attached to the "Cannon Ball" on its arrival from Pittsburgh at 10 o'clock last night. Several ladies were included in the party and all were enjoying a pleasant trip and anticipations of a delightful time in Chicago. Governor Fleming expressed himself as being confident that West Virginia would give Cleveland a greatly increased vote over that of 1888, and as his hat was nowhere near him at the time, he cannot be accused of talking through it.

Another Excessive Assessment. Only one petition was received by the council committee on equalization and appeals yesterday. It was from Mr. Charles Hancher, asking a reduction on personal property assessed at $2,200, which was assessed in 1891 at $2,000, and in 1890 at $200. He claims that he does not possess as much household goods at the present time as he did in 1890, and has no money or securities that he did not have in 1891. Said assessment in 1891 and 1892 is not correct, he having filed a petition at last meeting. The sub-committee has been working in the First ward for some time finished their labors yesterday, and no more petitions will be received from that ward before next August.

All Day Meetings.

Third hour. Topic, "The Ministry," leader, D. A. Denton.

Wheelmen's Notes.

Zimmerman will attempt to lower Johnson's 1:37 3-5 record at the Chicago meet next Friday and Saturday.

Windle, Zimmerman, Taylor, Taxis, Lunden and Gathens are quoted as being opposed to the cash prize system.

Stephane, was examined after a recent ride of 413 miles in twenty-four hours, and developed the fact that his temperature was normal and pulse eighty to the minute. He made but three stops during his long ride.

The Chicago cycling club will shortly make a decisive test of both the round and elliptical sprocket wheels. Horses will be used to pace the men and every possible effort will be made to make the test as thorough as possible.

The recent horse race between Vienna and Berlin was won by one of the Austrian army officers, but he took twice the time Shortland or Holbein would have consumed mounted and on bicycles, and will soon be in the clutches of the humane society for cruelty.

THE FINAL MEETING

Of all the Columbian Celebration Committees this Evening.

THE FINAL ARRANGEMENTS MADE

And Work being Pushed Rapidly on the Floats and Arches—The Stone Bridge to be Handsomely Decorated for the First Time in its History. Some of the Bodies that are to Participate.

The final meeting of all committees appointed for Columbian day has been called by the executive committee to meet this evening in the chamber of the first branch of council.

This will be the last meeting that will be held before the celebration, and it is of special importance for all members to be present. Reports will be read of the state of progress made by the various committees, and final action taken. All of the plans of the committee on street decorations are completed, and work will be started to-morrow morning on the erection of the various arches about town. The principal arch will be erected at the corner of Market and Twelfth streets, and the stone bridge will also be handsomely decorated, this being the best opportunity that has presented itself to deck it in gala attire. The frame work of all the floats is about finished. The erection of these is being carried on in the yards of the city gas works. Two fresco and scenic painters will arrive to-day to assist Mr. Hutchings in the painting and ornamenting of them. The costumes for the outriders will arrive from St. Louis to-morrow. The consignment of fire works has arrived, and everything is in good shape. Most of the organizations that will participate in the parade have reported.

ONE SENT TO JAIL

And Two Pay Fines for a Little Fun They Had With a Dog.

Thomas Matthews, Thomas McKernan and Thomas O'Keefe were arraigned before Squire Arkle yesterday on charges of trespass and assault. They are the young fellows who the other night stole three bags of peanuts from Piedro Marzo, the Italian fruit vender on Market street south of Sixteenth, and one of whom he caught and pummeled. Later they all returned and threw stones through the windows, breaking candy jars and a show case.

Officer Fahey arrested McKernan and Officer O'Brien the others. Each was fined $5 and costs on each of the two charges. Matthews and McKernan paid the fines, while O'Keefe went to jail for ten days on each charge.

"Kajanka."

On Saturday, matinee and night, we are to have a decided novelty at the Opera House in "Kajanka," a pantomimic farce comedy. It is not a new show to Wheeling theatre-goers, having met with gratifying success the past four years. It was a surprisingly good entertainment then, and a better one is promised on this visit. New scenery, new tricks, new stage mechanism, new people, in fact different in nearly every respect from the performance of last season. Seats go on sale to-morrow.

"Little's World."

Little's great drama, called "The World," which appears at the Grand Friday and Saturday, October 21, and 22, is thus spoken of by an exchange: "Little's World" is indisputably one of the most remarkable efforts at stage realism ever put upon the stage. The drama in itself is an excellent one, and the company, from the cast announced, is sure to be a strong one. Mr. Little is well known as an artist of rare ability, and the role could not be in better hands. The wonderful scenic effects introduced are alone a feature that will make the play a favorite for years to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew.

Of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew, who are to be seen at the Opera House to-morrow evening, the Philadelphia Ledger says:

"Sidney Drew is very clever. He is young, intelligent and a popular club man. He can row stroke oar if necessary, and walk over any cricketer pitted against him; can shoot anything abroad, from a hat to a burglar; has a base ball record and a wrestlers championship; he can act. Mrs. Drew is a young and very attractive woman. Her performance of Diabella Smythe was a revelation. She wears two new and stunning costumes, and surprised an audience into enthusiastic recognition of a new and interesting star."

"South Before the War."

This afternoon's matinee and this evening's performance will be the last opportunities to see that great and unique entertainment of Whallen & Mariels, "South Before the War." There is something in it to please everybody, old and young, of every taste or inclination. Good dancing was never so rife on the stage at the Grand. Good singing is as abundant. There is enough pathos and much humor of the rollicking sort, and taken all in all nobody ought to miss it. All who have seen it will be sure to want to see it again.

HUME-CRACRAFT.

A Brilliant Wedding in St. Matthews P. E. Church Last Evening.

One of the most notable nuptials ever celebrated in Wheeling was the ceremony which made Mr. John Potter Hume, of Marshfield, Wisconsin, a prominent newspaper man and real estate dealer of that city, and Miss Julia Cracraft, formerly a resident of this city, man and wife. The wedding was solemnized in St. Matthews P. E. church, which was most beautifully decorated with ferns, plants and cut flowers. Rev. Dr. R. Rush Swope was the officiating minister.

The bridal party entered the church in the following order:
Judge G. L. Crammer and Mrs. Elbridge G. Cracraft, mother of the bride; Mr. George Baird, Mr. Arthur Bates Butler, Mr. William Paxton Burke and Mr. Sam Harrison, ushers; Miss Jean Cracraft, a sister of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Cracraft, cousin of the bride, as flower girls; Miss Jessie Bates Turner, bridesmaid. After them came the bride, beautifully attired in a white wedding gown. The bridal party was met at the altar by the groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. George N. Reed, of Fond du Lac, Wis. The ceremony was brief and impressive. Mrs. Cracraft, the bride's mother, gave her away.

At its conclusion the bridal party was driven to the residence of Judge G. L. Crammer, on Chapline street, where an elegant wedding feast was served. The parlors were handsomely decorated in white and green, the mantels being banked with choice cut flowers. The couple were the recipients of numerous handsome presents. They departed on the 10:30 train last evening over the B. & O. for an extensive western trip, after which they will reside in Marshfield, Wis.

Mendel & Co's. furniture store, and will continue for eight days only, until Saturday night, October 30, at 10 o'clock.

P. S.—As the manager allows such a short space of time to dispose of the goods in order to make a settlement with the companies, the store will be kept open until 10 p. m. each day of the sale. Note prices of articles on page five.

OYSTER SUPPER

For the Benefit of St. Alphonsus Orphan Asylum.

The Oyster Supper to be given under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Sodality at St. Alphonsus church on Friday, 21st inst, for the benefit of the orphan asylum connected with said congregation, will not begin at 7 p. m., as published on the tickets, but at 6 p. m. This change has been made for the mere purpose of affording those attending the grand Columbian celebration, to take place on said day, an opportunity of enjoying a good supper after the parade.

Judging from the arrangements already made, it can safely be said that this supper will be a grand success. It will be held in the basement of St. Alphonsus church, and will be made most pleasant by the rich melodies of the celebrated Opera House orchestra, selected for the occasion. Admission only 50 cents.

THE HUB—ONE-PRICE CLOTHIERS.

A TEXAS SAWMILL

Some years ago there was conspicuously posted the following forcible admonition: "DON'T MONKEY WITH THE BUZZ SAW." Devoid of elegance, non-poetic, but in a garb of slang, this gem phrase of the "Wild and Woolly West" traveled from that sawmill with all its flavor of originality, throughout the width and breadth of this great land. It has been accepted as one of the greatest of metaphors and ranks as an Americanism of the first order, but what of that which admonishes you against—THE BUZZ SAW? It has for its sole object on earth only one purpose, and that is to go through whatever it comes in contact with. The proprietors of this imp of steel knowing its great danger were inspired to write the terse phrase just quoted. But how applicable is this whole thing to retail commerce, particularly the clothing branch of it. How like the Buzz Saw is the dealer who sells you an ill-made and poorly fitting garment for the price of a good one, yet the woods are full of these

Buzz-Saw Clothiers,

Whose object, like their prototype, is to go through whatever they come in contact with. We place ourselves in the position of that forcible piece of advice and say to the buyer of Clothing ready-made

"DON'T MONKEY WITH THE BUZZ SAW."

Danger to your dollars lies in their judgment, makes and materials. You owe it to your hard earnings that what you spend is well spent. If your judgment is at fault when it comes to makes and materials, why patronize dealers whose judgment is constitutionally at fault for want of proper experience in the Clothing business. (This is general.) We have made Tailor-made Clothing a study for years and we can talk it and sell it intelligently. Profit-saving on our part is money-saving on your part when you deal with us. From now until Christmas we shall give unheard of values in our Clothing and Furnishing Departments, and if you are in it with us we shall make this banner month of our business aroer.
